Sales by Product (Consolidated)

Revenue from sales of materials decreased, but this has already been incorporated in our forecasts. Sales of chemicals only fell slightly, despite sluggish sales of PCs.

Sales by Chemical (Consolidated)

There were sluggish sales of PCs, but our sales of chemicals for other uses increased. Overall, sales of chemicals only fell slightly.

MMEC COMPANY LTD. 2Q FY2012 Financial Announcement, October 2011

Reorganization of the Classification for Chemicals

Net Sales by Segment Region and Ratio of Overseas Sales

The overseas sales ratio rose with the decline of sales in Japan due to factors like the Great East Japan Earthquake.

Net Sales: CZ Series

Net sales of CZ-8101, a chemical for FCPKG used in PCs, fell. However, sales of CZ-8100, a chemical for other PKGs, grew for its use in smartphones.

Future Planning Points

1. From PKGs to motherboards, have MEC's technologies permeate all processes from upstream to downstream ones.
2. Ensure practical application of new processes for mass production of HDI boards.
3. Based on our copper surface treatment, aim to have our metal surface treatments applied in various areas such as electronic substrates and batteries.
